MountainWest Capital Network (MWCN), Utah's premier business networking organization, held its 13th annual Utah 100 Awards Program on Monday, October 22 at the Grand America Hotel in Salt Lake, to honor the Utah's 100 Fastest Growing companies, 15 Top Revenue Growth companies, and 12 "Emerging Elite" companies.

Awards in the 100 Fastest Growing category are based on percentage revenue increases from 2002 through 2006. Top Revenue Increase winners have the largest dollar amount of revenue growth over the same five-year measuring period. Emerging Elite companies are selected from among companies with less than five but more than two years of operation that show significant promise for future success.

For 2007, Doba of Orem, was the No. 1 Fastest Growing company. Huntsman Corporation of Salt Lake, was the Top Revenue company will dollar revenue increases totaling nearly $8 billion between 2002 and 2006. A complete list of winners in all three categories is available at www.mwcn.org.

Governor Jon Huntsman Jr. was this year's keynote speaker, and the awards were presented by Grant Nielsen of KSL Newsradio.

"The Utah 100 program is an important contribution to the Utah business community. It provides a forum for highlighting the achievements of both emerging and mature business, and keeps the public informed about positive developments," said Todd Leishman, Chairman of this year's Utah 100 Program and a business attorney with the Salt Lake law firm of Durham Jones & Pinegar. "The Utah 100 award has become a prestigious recognition for our winners, and has significant meaning to those who receive it. These awards will signify to the Utah business community, as well as those outside our state, that Utah continues to be a great place to do business."
